

Feminism & Resistance

Afghan Women Moving Forward

Tuesday, March 9, 2021

6:30pm - 8:30pm PST

Register for the event here

Zoom panel discussion with Afghan scholars and activists about women's rights, feminism, and resistance in Afghanistan.

Introduction by UCSC Feminist Studies Chair, Prof. Neda Atanasoski. Moderated by Halima Kazem-Stojanovic, Teaching Fellow for FMST 188 Women and War.

This event is supported by the Baskin Endowed Chair in Feminist Studies

Lima Ahmad - Ph.D. candidate in International Security and Human Security at Tufts University. Founder of Paywand Afghanan Association, focuses on research regarding women's issues

Samira Hamidi - Regional Campaigner for Amnesty International South Asia Regional Office & former Board Member of the Afghan Women's Network

Jamila Afghani - Director of Medica Afghanistan, an organization providing psychosocial and legal services for victims of gender-based violence. Islamic feminist scholar

